BE CAREFUL

About Tearing Down or Defacing signs.

There seems to be some persons in and around this town who take delight in tearing down advertising signs, and if the practice is not stopped some one will have to pay the penalty.

have to pay the penalty.

A few days ago we printed and posted a number of cards advertising the Mountain Advocate, and placed them in some of the most conspicuous points about the town and they were imme-diately torn down by some evilminded persons.

We also printed and had posted a large number of candidates' cards and a great many of them suffered the same fate. We are not the only ones who have a grievance, Others have been tacking signs and bills throughout the town, only to be fol-lowed by some worthless, mis chievous boys tearing them down and destroying them.

For the benefit of such who For the benefit of such who think they are having fun at else's expense, we from the City Ordinances of Barbourville, Ky., Sec. 50:

TEARING OR DEFACING SIGNS, ETC.
